PACIFIC SLOPE. SAW VOLCANIC ISLAND BORN.

Naval Officer Found Perry a Sizzling Hot Baby.

Vog Played Trick With Lieutenant, Some Think.

Look Found in Cruiser Boston—Auto Accident Fatal.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A M.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—Lieut.
John H. Perry, naval officer of the steamer Albatross, believes that he witnessed the birth of the volcanic island which arose from the sea in the midst of the Albatross about the time this island was shaken by the earthquake of April.

One of Lieut. Perry's shipmates witnessed the birth of the island in his belief, but others on board are inclined to ascribe the lieutenant's story to a trick of the fog.

Whether he saw the island born or not, the new peak was so sizzling hot when the Albatross passed it that no attempt was made to land, but when the revenue cutter Perry came along her officers did go ashore and explore the new land.

Prof. Heath, who fills the chair of geological geology at Stanford and who arrived here yesterday on the Albatross, left the Albatross at San Francisco. He was not on board at the time Lieut. Perry witnessed the birth of the island, but he has heard both sides of the story and believes what Perry says on the subject.

Imprisoned. Got Uneasy and Wanted to Drop 20,000 Acres.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.
PORTLAND, Sept. 5.—To prove that Senator Franklin P. Mays is not the creation of the Blue Mountain forest reserve, two letters were introduced in evidence during his trial in the Federal District Court here today. The letters were written by Henry C. Mays, brother of Senator Mays, to Congressman Bingham, then commissioner of the Forest Land Office.

The letters, dated at Portland, July 12, are currently used by the commissioner to follow Forest Service policy. The letter recommended the withdrawal of the proposed reserve. The letter recited that there was a rush of settlers to this area and there was danger of encroachment on the reserve.

The letter from Mays to Herman, dated at Portland, July 15, recited that there was a rush of settlers to this area and there was danger of encroachment on the reserve. The letter

DOMINICAN FINANCES PRESIDENT'S PROBLEM.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The President is believed to be giving his attention to the question of Dominican finances and their rehabilitation by a refunding scheme.

Among the guests on the Mayflower when the President reviewed the Atlantic fleet at Oyster Bay Monday were Dr. Jacob L. Hollander of Baltimore, who made an investigation of the fiscal affairs of the Dominican republican for the President several months ago; Frederico Velasquez, Minister of Finance of Santo Domingo, and Robert L. Bacon, Assistant Secretary of State.

These three have frequently discussed the refunding of the Dominican debt through a new bond issue contingent upon the ratification of the Dominican treaty. Their presence at Oyster Bay is regarded as an indication that the plan is crystallizing.

Col. George R. Colton, collector of customs for Santo Domingo, who has been administering the customs revenues of the republic in accordance with the modus vivendi now in effect, is now in New York and expects there to have a conference with Mr.
Bacon, preparatory to sailing for Santo Domingo to resume his official duties.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.
Treasury Facilitates Gold Imports.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—At the close of business today Secretary Shaw announced that, on and after Monday, September 10, and until further notice,
the Treasury will make deposits in national banks to facilitate the importation of gold. Bonds available by statement for investment by savings banks in Massachusetts and New York will be accepted at 90 per cent., pending the arrival of the gold. The actual engagements of the gold must precede the deposit, and the deposit must be paid as soon as the gold arrives.

Long Marches Affect Enlistments.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Long marches in the infantry branch of the army, as ordered in recent orders pertaining to annual camps of instruction, are disapproved by Brig.-Gen. W.
S. McCaskey, commanding the Southwestern Division, in his annual report to the War Department. The recent orders, he says, will have a decided and serious effect on enlistments.

GERMAN BUREAUCRACY
SHOCKED BY KAISER.

BERLIN, Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Emperor William has dropped a bomb behind the ramparts of the German noble military and civil bureaucracy by dismissing a son of the blood royal, Prince Hohen-lohe-Langenburg, from headship of the Colonial Department and appointing in his stead a self-made man of the people, Bank Director Bernhard Dernburg.

Organs of the privileged classes, in their search for scathing terms, condemn the Kaiser's action as showing his "mad love for Americanism." This thrill is due to the fact that Dernburg laid the foundations for his important business success by serving his banking apprenticeship in the United States.

The Kaiser is also attacked for daring to break the tradition that government positions are the monopoly of incompetent offspring of aristocratic and military caste, filling their places with energetic and capable men from the despised ranks of commerce and trade.

REFORM BALANCE
FOR REPRESSION.

RUSSIAN PROGRAMME PROMISING
AND THREATENING.

Useless Restrictions on Jews to Be Abolished, Greater Provincial Autonomy, Police and Public Service Reforms All Counteract Court-martial for Political Crimes.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 5.—An official communication embodying the whole government programme was published tonight.

The programme embraces court-martials for political crimes and an increase of the penalties for revolutionary propaganda and espionage, a firm determination to preserve order.

The programme also promises a liberal measure of reforms and that useless restrictions on Jews shall be abolished forthwith.

Measures are promised in the direction of greater provincial autonomy.
Zemstvos will be introduced in Poland and the Baltic provinces.

An income tax will be instituted.
Reforms in the police and other public services also are promised.

A general meeting of "Octoberists" and "Peaceful Regenerationists" will be held at the end of September. It is believed that at that time the "Octo-berists" party will be dissolved or merged with the "Peaceful Regenerationists."

The communication, which was issued after a protracted discussion by Premier Stolypin and the Council of Ministers, leaves the situation but little altered. The one thing evident is that the Premier intends to carry out broad reforms on one hand and to pursue a policy of repression on the other.

The establishment of court-martials for political crimes signifies the planting of the civil courts wherever extraordinary insecurity exists. An imperial ukase instituting this law was issued after publication of the proclamation. It empowers government, where martial law or extraordinary insecurity exists, to plant civil courts on military men charged with crimes upon trial before a military court consisting of five officers, the trial to take not longer than seventy-two hours from the beginning of the process to the execution of the verdict. This is entirely a new law, heretofore in practice on only military or naval mutinies, and uprisings, such as that in the Baltic provinces last year. There were occasions for court-martials in Poland, Moscow, Warsaw and practically the whole of Russia are now under this category.

The programme as announced in the official communication is not the full programme of the government, which probably will be issued at the end of September or early in October.

BOISE SPEAKERS FOR BETTER IMMIGRATION.

BOISE (Idaho) Sept. 5.—Vice-President L. W. Shurtliff of Ogden presided at the opening of this morning's session of the Immigration Convention, Senator Carter having returned to Montana. Gov. Albert E. Weeks of Washington later was called to the chair.

William K. McAllister of Denver, the first speaker, dealt with the immigration question and raised issues that involved the congress in most earnest discussion. The Coloradoan advocated foreign immigration, and as a model to be followed urged the methods of the Mormon Church in settling the valleys of Utah and adjoining States. Under the methods of the Mormon Church these immigrants had been drawn from the agricultural classes of Northern Europe from the best of the hard-working peasants.

John P. Ingh of California asked the congress if it would not be better to close the country's gates to the more than 1,000,000 of foreign immigrants who were coming annually and give the youth of our own land a higher opportunity. The California declared that the immigration today was not a patriotic immigration, but a parasitic immigration.

EASTERN SETTLERS PROMINENT.

C. W. Mott of St. Paul, general immigration agent of the Northern Pacific Railroad, agreed with Col. Ingh. He said the Northern Pacific success in settling the territory traversed by their lines had been in the eastern states, not in foreign lands. The kind of immigration wanted had been in eastern states, and 75,000 of these, nearly all American citizens, had been settled in the Northwest during the past year. The lawless immigration from Europe, he believed, was not wanted.

W. Field, a foreign-born delegate from Oregon, praised the foreign immigrant, who was needed in the upbuilding of the country. The speaker said that while Pinchot had the privilege of drawing for his work the same salary as a Congressman, he was not exercising that privilege, but was having the salary distributed among his clerks.

TUCKER GIVES WHITT TALK.

H. St. George Tucker, president of the Jamestown Exposition, made a very address, which provoked continuing laughter. He said that once, before he knew better, he was a member of the congress. Once he was one of those "unintelligent easterners" of whom he had heard so much during the session of the congress, but he was now enlightened, and now he almost wished he had lived in the little gem town of Idaho.

"We of the East are ignorant of the progress of this great people, and why I am here today," he said, "I want to hold up our end, and we want to take this congress to Jamestown next year. Sacramento, Reno, Nevada, Denver and other towns can wait," he said, "but old Virginia's birthday cannot wait."

The meeting place will be named by the convention tomorrow.

The morning session closed with an address by F. H. Newell of the Reclamation Service on the methods under which irrigation projects are constructed.

GOV. CHAMBERLAIN PRESIDES.

Gov. George E. Chamberlain of Oregon presided at the afternoon session. Right Rev. Joseph A. Arrell of Denver, the first speaker, who spoke of Italian immigration on western farms, deplored the tendency of immigrants from his country to gather in the slums of the big cities, but with this class he contrasted the thousands of thrifty Italian farmers who were cultivating farms in the West.

Discussion of "laws governing water rights and methods of appropriating water by different States" was introduced by Dr. Elwood Meade of the Reclamation Service. State engineers representing ten States were present, but the only speakers were John W. Lewis of Oregon and John W. Wade of Helena, Mont., president of the State Engineers' Association.

Richard W. Young of Salt Lake City read a paper on "Sugar Beet Legislation." His argument was against the free admission of sugar from the Philippines as has been persistently advocated before Congress.

SOUTH WANTS HELP.

Col. Robert Harrington of the South Carolina delegation presented "The Drainage Needs of South Carolina." He urged the National Irrigation Congress to espouse the cause of his State and help to secure Federal appropriation for the reclamation of South Carolina marsh and swamp lands.

In the absence of Gov. Cutler of Utah, who has not yet arrived, John Henry Smith of Salt Lake City was called upon by Gov. Chamberlain to speak for the Utah delegation. Smith's address was a vigorous plea for good citizenship and for the upholding of the best traditions of the republic. Questions of climatology and rainfall were discussed by P. H. Brandenberg, in charge of the Weather Bureau at Denver.

As evidence of future fulfillment of the good things promised should the convention vote to meet next year in Sacramento, the California delegation this afternoon took the open doors of their headquarters and served refreshments to all comers. Fruit, light wines and more substantial things were offered and it was noted that nearly all delegates coming away were Sacramento badges.

The convention tonight was entertained by the Boise Symphony Orchestra, which rendered a concert programme in Convention Hall.

Utah today was awarded the grand sweepstakes prize for the best display of fruit, and will carry away the $500 silver cup. Idaho won the grand sweepstakes prize for the best display of grains and grasses grown under irrigation. Ada county, Idaho, won the grand prize for vegetables.

The Committee on Permanent Organization will meet and report tomorrow, and will recommend the following as officers for the next year: President, Gov. George E. Chamberlain of Oregon; vice-president, John Henry Smith of Sacramento, Calif.; second vice-president, H. B. Maxson, Nevada; third vice-president, Geo. W. Barstow, of Texas; secretary, D. H. Anderson of Illinois.

RESULTS ELECTING A "BLACK POPE."

EXCLUSION AND FASTING WEARS ON OLDER DELEGATES.

First Steps in Event of Great Importance to Catholic Church Being Taken in Rome—Head of Order Is Expected for Life—Anti-Clerical Forces Busy at Pope's Old Home.

ROME, Sept. 5.—Some of the older delegates of the Congregation of the Company of Jesus are suffering from the exclusion and fasting entailed by the modernism.

Anti-clerical societies wishing to protest against the growth of the religious order hereafter organizing a meeting today here at Castle Gandolfo, the summer residence of the Pope. As Cardinal Merry del Val, the Papal Secretary of State is there it is most likely that the Pope will try to prevent the meeting from being held.

The first steps in the election of the "Black Pope" or general of the Jesuits, anxiously awaited by over 15,000 men all over the world, and considered of such great importance by all the adherents of the Catholic Church, now being taken.

After the quadrum, the period of four days of strictest seclusion in which the Congregation of the Company of Jesus prepares for the final election of their general, and which began yesterday, the final meeting will be for counting the ballots leading to the election.

All the delegates entitled to participate in the meeting will rise that morning of them, according to the constitution of this important function, will be allowed to celebrate except the vicar, Father Ruggeri Prede, in the presence of the German college.

The delegates will rise, and, forming procession, enter the large hall of "St. Ignace." The hall will be very solemnly decorated, a large crucifix being on the main wall above the altars. In front of which will be rows of desks for the delegates, sufficiently far apart to admit of each writing secretly.

Most of the Jesuits, especially the older ones, will carry into the hall some food and a bottle of water, as they have not had any since the night before, and they are not allowed either to eat or drink or to touch anything but food and water until the election is over.

SECRECY DOUBLY ASSURED.

After having appointed two secretaries to assist the vicar in sorting and reading the votes, each delegate will take a solemn oath to be faithful to the accomplishment of their office. Each delegate will be provided with printed sheets on which, inside, on the right side, they will write the name of the candidate, and on the left, in disguised handwriting, their vote. These sheets will then be folded and sealed, and that in opening them for scrutiny the names of the voter will be concealed and will not be looked at unless the propriety is suspected, or that the voter has voted for himself, which is strictly forbidden. This same operation will be repeated until one of the majority is gained by a two-thirds vote. The majority will then be proclaimed and the new general will be elected.

CAR STRIKE ENDED.

to you that if, and when the members of the respective unions who are now striking are directed by their union to return promptly to work, I will cordially receive the officers of said unions, and will immediately proceed to arbitrate questions of hours and wages.

"It will be entirely agreeable to me to agree with all of said unions upon a common board of arbitrators, the questions at issue, however with each union to be separately considered. You must realize that the principle herebefore announced by me that my company would only deal with unions having members in my employ is no restriction upon the officers of the local unions, and is no attack upon unionism, but is founded upon my sincere conviction that observance of this principle is beneficial to employer and employee, and to the unions themselves, and is essential if the object of unionism is industrial peace, rather than industrial strife.

"Very truly yours,

[Signed] "PATRICK CALHOUN."

The joint conference voted in favor of resumption of work in accordance with the written promise of immediate subsequent dealing with the unions and immediate subsequent arbitration. Tonight a meeting was held between the president of the United Railroads and a committee of five representing the joint conference of the unions, and the first steps were taken toward the prompt arbitration agreed upon. That arbitration will proceed with all due diligence, and the awards made will be as of the date of the resumption of work.

LIVERNASH'S WORK.

"STRIKES" THE UNION.
THE DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES: [Exclusive Dispatch.] E. J. Livernash was the instigator of the false resolution submitted to and accepted by the Carmen's Union. Under his influence, the frightened and tottering President Cornelius of the union submitted to this fraud, which was carefully planned.

In attempting to carry a bucket on each shoulder, Livernash proved himself a two-faced hypocrite. He went before the Carmen's Union and deliberately misrepresented the attitude of President Calhoun, while at the same time claiming to be an arbitrator in the interest of public peace.

The resolution which he fathered would never have been passed had the truth been told.

THEIR STORMY MEETING.
The meeting was held in Central Market, near the corner of Eighth and Market streets. It was the largest history of the union. Eight hundred men attended. The Times was present, saw all the speakers and heard every word that was said. It was a furious storm of organized capital and public opinion, that lasted until after midnight. The meeting was the plot of the evening, and it was carried out by unprincipled parasites, whose only desire was to save themselves from denunciation by the public and retain their positions of graft. The correspondent had been told that their union had acted unconstitutionally against the charter of the national organization by declaring a strike without that their union had violated and repudiated its contract with the United Railroads; that their union had acted against public opinion; that Cornelius, president of their union, had duped them, played them false and driven them into conditions to which they were ashamed to be a party.

BEGGED TO CALL IT OFF.
The Times correspondent heard men beg that they might be allowed to call off the strike and return to work at once, leaving all to future arbitration. "We have acted like damn fools," the people of San Francisco a step too far. The families are crying for bread. We are beaten and deserve to be beaten. We must take our medicine and return to work."

MOB FACTION HOWLS.

I heard the men who expressed sentiments biased and feared while the mob faction howled: "We want a recognition of the union. We want the closed shop. We won't work with scabs. We won't let the scabs drive the cars. We will mob them and drive them from the city. To hell with public opinion! To hell with the railroad light."

Then Livernash gave them the lie telling them that Calhoun had come down off his high horse, and was ready to recognize the union and submit differences to arbitration at once, if they would adopt a resolution which would be presented by their president, Cornelius.

LIVERNASH THREATENS THEM.

Livernash told them that he had been told by W. D. Mahon, president of the national organization that Calhoun had agreed to this. He threatened them by saying that they had been deceived by the Trades Council and would have their charter taken away from them if they refused to pass the resolution.

MAHON'S TELEGRAM READ.

A telegram was read from Mahon threatening the local Carmen's Union to call off the strike, to return to work or else suffer revocation of its charter. It was announced that this telegram was received two days ago.

TREASON AND TREASON.

Under conditions harrowing to the point of tears, the Carmen's Union for sixty hours from the union headquarters to the strikers, trickery and treachery, and treason against the Carmen's Union did not

MEXICAN AGITATORS' PLANS ALL REVEALED.

DOUGLAS (Ariz.) Sept. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gabriel Rubio, president of the Douglas junta, known as the "Liberty Club," was taken this afternoon. His trunk was full of documents detailing the plans of the agitators, as advised by the headquarters at Toronto. Unquestionably, he will get his three years in Yuma, with the other leaders arrested here yesterday.

Gen. Luis D. Torres spent the day here, looking after the fortifications of Agua Prieta. To the Times correspondent, he said: "I appreciate the promises of the United States government in these arrests of Mexico's enemies and hope your people can hold them."

A secretary of one of the juntas, here a day or two ago, made the extravagant claim of 13,000 members in Arizona, 22,000 in New Mexico, and 170,000 in Texas.

OFFICIALS REACH DOUGLAS.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.] DOUGLAS, Sept. 5.—Among Mexican and American officials who have come to this city to attend the hearing before the United States Commissioner in the case of the twelve persons arrested on the charge of planning a military expedition against a friendly power are Gen. Torres of Sonora, G. W. Webb, United States Immigration Inspector for Arizona, and New Mexico; Arturo Ulises, Mexican Consul at Tucson; and United States Attorney Alexander of Phoenix, who will prosecute the cases.

Gen. Torres said today that with the breaking up of the junta here he felt confident the trouble along the border would be ended.

SEDITIONARY LETTER FOUND.

AGITATOR HAD INSTRUCTIONS.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.] EL PASO, (Tex.) Sept. 5.—A letter found on the person of Bruno Trevino,

"I must beg your attention while I make clear my position," he said. "In my dealings with Mr. Calhoun I have pointed out to him that, owing to earthquakes and fire, conditions are such that the price of living is almost doubled. I have demonstrated to him that these conditions brought an extra burden of work on the platform men, and that, therefore, it is only just that the union should demand increased pay and shorter hours."

PROPOSALS ANOTHER STRIKE.
"I did not ask for the closed shop, because that is a matter not occasioned by earthquake and fire. We must secure more money and shorter hours, and then we will tell him that the scabs must go."

"We will force the closed shop with another strike, if necessary, but the time is not ripe now. We can't drive Calhoun too hard all at once. But he has agreed to recognize the union, and I ask you to pass this resolution."

LIVERNASH OPENS UP.

Livernash then read and explained the resolution, and it was put through by a call for a rising vote. The few who tried to rise at the call for "those opposed" were hissed and jeered into their seats. Their constitution calls for a secret ballot, but Cornelius waived this, not being willing to allow the conservative element to show its strength. It was a pitiful example of bullying.

Amid wild applause Livernash, with the pompous bearing of a demi-god, then addressed the meeting, speaking as follows:

"By your action tonight you have reinstated yourselves in the good graces of public opinion. You have reinstated

THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Trunk Open, Clothes Gone.

W. H. Hatcher, a grading camp laborer, left a trunk full of clothing in the trunk room of the Los Angeles Hotel last week. Some one broke open the trunk and stole most of the clothes. Hatcher went to the police yesterday. Given a Gold Watch.

C. C. Craig, assistant manager of the Home Telephone Company, was presented with a handsome gold watch and fob by the other employees in the office yesterday in commemoration of his first anniversary as assistant manager and in celebration of his birthday. The company also granted him one month leave of absence.

Caught With the Goods.
C. H. Fair, captured while trying to sell stolen goods, is accused by the police of being a smooth room worker. Fair had two valises full of clothing in his possession when a patrolman arrested him yesterday. Detectives found some of the plunder had come from the room of Otto G. Gnu, burglarized two days ago. "Holt" was the name on other unidentified clothing.

Woodward's Condition Improves.
The condition of Robert Woodward, who was accidentally shot last Monday morning, showed a slight improvement yesterday. He is still in the hospital, but the patient recovered partially the strength that he lost during the unsuccessful operation held on Tuesday. It is hoped that Woodward will regain sufficient strength to permit the surgeons to make another attempt at removing the bullet, as his only chance of recovery depends upon this.

ACTRESS ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.
After Quarrel With Partner, Grace Edwards Fires Bullet Into Her Arm.

Grace Edwards, a variety actress, tried to commit suicide yesterday in a restaurant on North Spring street. She had quarreled the night before with her stage partner and removed her arm to try to take her life. Accompanied by F. E. Dix, with whom she had been doing an acrobatic turn, Miss Edwards arrived in Los Angeles Tuesday from Portland. All day the girl tried to secure employment and late that night went to the cafe with Dix. The two quarreled and Miss Edwards stepped outside the room and shot immediately followed with a bullet wound in her left arm. The young woman was found lying on the floor.

At the Receiving Hospital it was found that the woman will recover. The detectives believe she shot with the intention of frightening her partner. An old wound on the same arm is thought to have been caused in a similar escapade.

The girl is said to be a clever acrobat and for several years traveled with Ringling Bros' shows and on the Orpheum circuit. She refused to make any statement.

PERSONAL.
J. A. Heap of Guaymas, a mining operator, is at the Angeles.

T. O. Heltbourn, a retail merchant of Chicago, is a guest at the Westminster.

Frank Brown, wife and child of Philadelphia are registered at the Angeles. Mr. Brown is a member of the banking firm of Brown & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Mathis of Hamburg, Germany, are guests at the Van Nuys. Mr. Mathis is connected with a manufacturing concern of Hamburg.

A. I. Wagner and wife and Roy Knight and wife of Stockton are guests at the Alexandria. The party made the trip in an automobile.

E. L. Hoag and wife arrived in Los Angeles yesterday by auto, after a trip from San Francisco and through the Yosemite Valley. They are guests at the Alexandria.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cahn, Miss Dora Weiler and two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Cahn arrived in the city yesterday after a pleasant trip from Santa Barbara by automobile. They are registered at the Van Nuys.

JAPAN CRITICIZES HER ALLY.
Tokio Journal Thinks It Strange That Great Britain Does Not Adopt Conscription System.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
VICTORIA, (B. C.) Sept. 5.—The steamship Tanga, which arrived yesterday from Japan, brought advice that prominent Japanese newspapers are urging upon Great Britain, as Japan's ally, the adoption of the conscription system.

The Jiji of Tokyo says that while wishing to avoid passing any premature criticisms as affecting the national defense of Japan's ally, it is strange that Great Britain does not adopt conscription and the paper proceeded to urge that step. The Jiji points out that under the present system Great Britain is spending money disproportionate to her military strength, which, although showing disparity when compared with the armies of Germany and France, cost more than the armies of both those countries.

FATAL MISTAKE IN ATTACK.
One Man Killed and Three Others Are Shot in Tennessee Through Error of Identification.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
ALBANY (Ky.) Sept. 5.—In a shooting affray in Pickett county, Tenn., George Morris was killed and John Buck fatally shot. Orville Huddleston was wounded in the face and shoulder and Virgil Beatty was hit in the neck and face.

Luther Clark, Roscoe Reagan and J. M. Gillentine are said to have done the shooting. They have not been arrested. The shooting, it is said, was the result of a mistake, the men attacked having been mistaken for other parties.

The steamer Aloha, bound for Port Gamble, while going to sea out of San Francisco, yesterday, came in collision with a schooner and lost both of her masts.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES MEET.

ELEVENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION IS LARGELY ATTENDED.

Ten Churches Represented at the Opening Session and Much Interest Is Manifested—Rev. W. L. C. Sampson of Santa Ana Delivers Thoughtful Address on Need of Heroes.

The eleventh annual convention of the Young People's Societies of the Los Angeles Presbytery was formally opened last night in the Second United Presbyterian Church, Washington and Santa Ana streets, the edifice being filled with earnest young people of the following churches: First Los Angeles, Second Los Angeles, Harvard Heights, Pasadena, Redlands, Beaumont, Riverside, Santa Ana, San Diego and Long Beach. The sessions will continue today and will close with a grand rally this evening. Much interest is being manifested.

A praise service, conducted by W. R. G. Hawkins of Pasadena, opened the convention at 7:45 o'clock. A song of welcome was sung by the Misses Quinn and Morline of the Second Church Society. There was a response by J. Marie Smith, the president, and a solo by Miss Fanny Greer.

The evening service centered around the address given by Rev. W. L. C. Sampson of Santa Ana. He is one of the youngest of the prominent speakers of the church, and his discourse advocated the spirit of practical systematic belief which has for its object the betterment of mankind, and which is not afraid to stoop to help the lowly. He gave vivid pictures from experience in his own life, and likened the Christian life to a struggle on a football gridiron, declaring that the church now needs great heroes than ever before in its history.

"If we are to serve the Lord," said he, "we must have the willingness to sacrifice ourselves for His cause and affections which are debasing. We must have a baptism of the Holy Spirit, and must be set apart for the chosen work of God. The business world demands of a young man that he shall have a character beyond reproach. Those who employ young men in the banking or mercantile life demand that a young man shall lead a separate life."

"God demands as much and more of you than the business or professional life. He demands that you be pure; that you set your affections on things which are above, and that you live a life that is beyond reproach."

HAWAII FEELS EARTHQUAKE.
HONOLULU, Sept. 5.—Two earthquakes are reported from Hilo, on the island of Hawaii, but it is stated that no damage was done. After one of the shocks hundreds of dead fish were thrown up on the beaches. Apparently, they had been scalded by a submarine eruption. The earthquakes were not felt on Oahu, the island on which Honolulu is situated.

FALL

Now the Stage is Set For Fall

Exit the light-hued, light-weight summer fabrics. Majestically enter the more dignified tones of fall suitings.

And certainly the master fabric designers have much to congratulate themselves for in this season's fabrics, with the delicate browns, and dignified Scotch grays, and the fascinating green mixtures in the various patterns presented in a fall suitings array that is far superior to any we have ever noted in any fall array since we started in business.

Perhaps the beauty of our array is due to the fact that we started to make our fall selections way last March when you were still wrapped in winter and were looking forward only to summer.

Just as an example of Los Angeles enterprise we want you to take a look at our fall array of fabrics.

CITY AND COUNTRY.

GREAT HOTEL ON THE HILLS.

Transformation Is in Sight Beyond Eastlake.

Large High Acreage Is Sold for Improvement.

Hundred Ninety Thousand Dollars Paid.

At last the beautiful northeastern hills, long neglected in the general expansion of the city and suburban settlements, appear to be about to blossom forth into prominence.

A deal closed yesterday includes within its scope a chain of the most slightly of these rolling heights lying above Eastlake Park, and paves the way for enterprises of an important character, including the building of a series of ornamental parks, the laying out of wide boulevards and handsome footpaths in accord with the contour of the hills and little valleys, and the opening up of more than half a thousand acres of land for villa sites, suitable to improvements of high class.

The deal involves the payment of $190,000 to Frank Oswald, L. M. Grider and L. R. Hamilton for a tract of 572 acres, known for some time past as "Floral Park," and lying to the east of Eastlake Park, extending along the hills west toward Ramona Acres.

The purchasers are well-known San Francisco men, headed by E. E. Hewlett of the law firm of Hewlett, Bancroft & Halland, and J. H. Hewlett, who parted for the northern city on Tuesday last night. He will return soon to undertake plans for the actual development of the large tract of high-lands.

About five months ago Grider & Hamilton and Frank Oswald purchased these hills from one of the old-time families of this vicinity, and at once set a corps of surveyors to work running lines for streets and boulevards. This has progressed well, and the work will be used by the purchasers of yesterday in the development of their own plans.

It is said that one of the highest hills has been selected for the site of a four-story hotel that will rival the Raymond in size and architectural design, and that it will be a prominent landmark visible from a vast scope of country in mountain and valley.

While the plans of the purchasers provide for extensive and highly-beautiful hotel grounds, they also plan to divide the remainder of the large tract into tracts of several acres each for villa sites, and will place such restrictions on the property that high-class homes will be assured.

Much of the land will be parallel with the new electric line to Covina, the tract being one of the finest in the roadway. With the rapid development of Alhambra, Doliveville, and Ramona Acres, the additional designs for the improvement of this beautiful stretch of hills will be certain to attract much attention to the northeastern territory.

NEW RATE LAW ROUGH ON RATS.

ALSO CARLOAD LOTS OF DOGS AND DRIED FLIES.

Tabby Cats in Bulk Come Under New Regulations and Companies Must Publish Rate Month in Advance of Shipment—Railroad Men in Deadly Earnest Over Quarry.

"This new rate law is going to prove disastrous to rates on carload shipments of dogs to Eastern States and to bulk consignments of dried flies," philosophized Chief Clerk F. P. Greason of the freight department of the Santa Fe as he scratched his head over an unexpurgated edition of the voluminous old tariff.

"No, I am not joking," declared the veteran rate man, as he rolled over a tattered page of the document and pointed to a well-thumbed paragraph. "We were called upon not long ago for a rate on carload lots of live dogs from a Northern California town to Kansas City."

"We thought it was a joke at first. We laughed at the shipper, and asked him if he was interested in one of the Kansas City sausage factories, and suggested that if he was going in to break up the frankfurter trust he might do the right thing by Los Angeles and take up all the stray canines here first."

"But it appears it wasn't a joking matter. He said he was in earnest; that he was in the business of shipping fine dogs. It seems he had extensive kennels and desired to take the whole outfit East."

The freight tariffs, covering as many queer things as they do already, didn't happen to contain any provision for live dogs or dead dogs. The live-stock rates couldn't be made to cover the case. So, at the request of the shipper, the Santa Fe took the matter up, named him a rate, advised the freight bureau and the Interstate Commerce Commission by wire, and in three days had the thing authorized.

Under the new law anybody who comes along and wants a special rate on carloads of rats is less than carload lots of tabby cats will be compelled to wait thirty days before the roads can authorize the rate, as that is the time of publication required by the commission.

Prosals as the work may seem, there are many queer and interesting features cropping up in the life of the freight-rate man. For instance, the local office of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company was called upon a short time ago to furnish rates on dried flies in bulk from South and Central American points to Pacific Coast points.

In the instance, also, the clerk thought he was being made game of but was too good-natured to resent the fancied levity of his questioner.

Much to the freight man's surprise, however, he found that his company did make a special rate on dried flies. This interested him, and he discovered by questioning the would-be shipper that there is a regular business in Latin-American ports in the gathering and shipment of quantities of dried flies to the United States and Germany.

More to his surprise, he found that they are a staple article of commerce and are used extensively by bird fanciers for canary bird food.

Thousands of pounds of dried flies are shipped annually from southern ports to San Francisco and New York to supply this demand. In South and Central America, hundreds of dusky youngsters, and men, too, make a living, such as it is, by trapping the swarming household pests, drying them in the sun and disposing of them to exporters.

VINEYARDISTS IN A SQUEEZE.

Wineries Face Price at Which to Buy Grapes.

Growers Hold Back and Ask for Higher Rates.

Heavy Crop, but Wine Supply Reported Short.

Owing to the uncertainty in the prices of wine grapes a number of the wineries in this district have postponed operations until prices become settled.

Last year the average price of grapes was between $15 and $17 a ton. Early this season nearly all of the wineries made some contracts based upon the price paid last year. But upon the destruction of the great quantities of surplus stocks of wines, especially sweet wines, in the San Francisco district, and now the burning of 25,000 gallons of sherry at the big Calero winery of the California Wine Association near Fresno, as told in the Times yesterday, has had the effect to stiffen prices.

Many of the vineyardists in the foothill section of Los Angeles have failed to deliver any grapes under the contracts already made and are said to be holding out for $25 a ton.

In connection with these contracts, it is stated that some of the wineries have now offered an increase in price for the grapes. The contractors expect to have deliveries made under this compromise.

STARTING RIGHT IN.

But the big Cucamonga winery, realizing that prices for California wine threaten to go booming this season, have jumped in and are now ahead of all the other wineries, paying $20 a ton for the best grapes and taking all they can get.

The big West Glendale winery is waiting for Los Angeles to set the price of grapes. Whatever the wineries in and near Los Angeles decide to pay for grapes in bulk will be the prevailing price for the rest of this wine district.

An entire carload of Muscat grapes is due this week at the Puma winery on Avenue 20, but this winery is also waiting to see prices settle before running full blast. They will be ready to start for the rest of the season.

Other wineries at Alamitos, Norwalk and near Pomona are still in the preliminary stages of wine making for this season.

The grape crop is said to be above average and will aggregate 25,000 tons for the seven Southern counties. This would mean $1,000,000 at $20 a ton.

FIXING THE PRICES.

There was a meeting of the winery men in this city yesterday, at which the situation was gone over. It was reported that the grape crop would show up 20 per cent. greater than last year, and it was decided to fix the prices of grapes at $15 a ton, at cars or winery, at from $12 to $15 a ton.

But not all of the winery men were present at this meeting and those who were not may be a strong factor in keeping up the prices of grapes as demanded by the vineyardists.

It is expected that the greater product of the vineyards this year is said to be the output from the young vineyards, that is, new vines in place of old ones. These new vineyards are bearing prolifically this year and the winery men say that in view of the increased production there is no excuse in the world for an increase in prices.

The prices of grapes of various kinds is dominated in part by the percentage of surplus stocks, and the winery men believe he will make good.

Tennis lovers will be looking in his direction tomorrow, and hoping that he may come back with the championship dangling from his belt.

HERE FOR GREAT SHOOT.

Pennsylvania, South Dakota and Minnesota Cracks Already on the Grounds.

In preparation for the Interstate Association's target tournament, to be held Saturday, Sunday and Monday at the grounds of the Los Angeles Gun Club, shooters from all parts of the country are arriving daily, and every afternoon the grounds near Sherman present a scene of feverish activity, thousands of the inanimate "birds" being slaughtered by the shooters who are to take part in the tournament.

Early on Saturday morning, the benefit of several days of practice, Elmer E. Shaner of Pittsburgh, secretary and manager of the association, has already secured a score of favorable activity, thousands of the inanimate "birds" being slaughtered by the shooters who are to take part in the tournament.

The first and most important event of the tournament, which will be at fifteen targets and the other three at twenty targets. The second day, Sunday, the whole nine events will be at twenty targets, while on the last day, Monday, shooting will start off with three events, twenty targets, and end with the Pacific Coast Handicap at 100 targets. In all the events except the last one, the men will all toe the line in the handicap, and a committee will arrange allowances from fourteen to twenty-two yards, giving the victor a chance of victory with the cracks of the shooting world.

This committee, shouldering a most arduous task, and chosen regardless of geographical considerations, will be as follows: Elmer E. Shaner, Pittsburgh; B. Waters, New York; C. M. Powers, Decatur, Ill.; W. D. Townsend, Omaha, and L. B. Fleming, Pittsburgh.

Nearly two hundred shooters, to whom right and left quarters, divers and other stubbornly disposed birds all look alike, are expected to participate in the big event, and when the smoke of action has cleared away, some one will be hailed as Pacific Coast champion for the following year, and many thousands of clay targets will have been shattered in their wild flight through the air.

"KEEP AWAY FROM NOME."

Bowler Who Went There Looking for Mines Sends Warning to Poor Men to Stay Away.

If any of the local bowlers are thinking of going to Nome to dig out some gold, they should listen to the advice of A. L. Jenkins, Master of the Western Bowling Congress, who says, like Punch, don't. Good wages are the rule, but they are secured by working for some of the big mining companies, wages being from $5 per day to $10, with board included, but the active season is so short that operations must move rapidly when they start.

Jenkins writes to a friend here that he had been out for about twenty miles from Nome and was told that the entire country was staked out in mining claims for a distance of 100 miles from the town. The country is a barren, hilly waste, upon which nothing grows except a little grass and some scrubby brush several feet high.

HOPE OF THE SOUTH.

This is the Man Who May Win the State Tennis Championship at San Rafael.

TOM BUNDY.

Tom Bundy of Los Angeles has a chance to do something big tomorrow for Southern California. He will play Melville Long of the California Tennis Club at San Rafael for the tennis championship of the State. His friends believe he will make good.

Tennis lovers will be looking in his direction tomorrow, and hoping that he may come back with the championship dangling from his belt.

WAGE REBATE THEIR OFFER.

Dupes of Totem Jawsmiths Try Odd Scheme.

Jobs of Union Carpenters Who Quit, Taken.

Plumbers Who Stop Work Will Lose Places.

The impotency of the totemite in Los Angeles has been fully proven. The much-vaunted "strike" against the building contractors in this city is shown to be entirely futile, and yesterday evening's vote taken at the order of the walking delegate was filled and in many cases by the same men who had quit work the previous day.

Today there will be yawning among the unionites, for the jobs of those who have quit have been taken, and they have gained nothing. In many instances the union members refused to obey the orders of the paid hirelings among the walking delegates and remained at work. This is the straw that broke the camel's back, points to practical a general repudiation of the jawsmith boss by the workmen in Los Angeles.

A characteristic incident occurred yesterday at the Christian Church at Eleventh and Hope streets, where some work is being done by S. M. Irving, a contractor.

About a dozen carpenters were on the job—all members of the union. They approached Mr. Irving and stated that they would be compelled to quit work unless he paid them $4 a day and granted them a half-holiday on Saturday.

Mr. Irving, who is a man of determination, refused point blank to do so, and the men quit and gathered a little knot on the pavement, adjacent to the church property.

OFFER REBATE IN WAGES.

One of the labor bosses, a large, stout, loud-mouthed fellow, mingled with the men and ordered them to refuse to work unless they got their demands.

He made specious promises of "the support of the union," and ended by the statement that he would be around Saturday and see if they were paid the advance in wages.

The men loitered about the place for a time and then sent a commissioner to see Mr. Irving, who had remained on the property awaiting developments.

The man asked Mr. Irving to pay the wages asked and promised, in behalf of the other workmen to turn to Mr. Irving 10 cents per day from the wages of each man. He stipulated that nothing of this action was to be done until the walking delegate. The man seemed to fear more the boisterous threats of the jawsmith labor boss than he did the loss of the money.

The proffer left Mr. Irving speechless with rage, but he finally blurted out:

"No! Not in a thousand years. I am no sneak, to accept rebates from my men's wages and bamboozle the other contractors into believing that I am paying the union wage scale and thus force them to pay the same. You fellows get your tools and come back here to work under your former terms or clear out or good. Decide one way or the other, for I can secure men within an hour's time to take your places."

The men held another conference and returned in a body. They explained that they would probably be ousted from the union at its next meeting, but declared that they would no longer be dictated to by the jawsmith bosses.

POOL THE UNION.

This is but one instance of where the employer has refused to be a party to the scheme. Other contractors have probably had the same proposition made to them, but it is stated that not one accepted the rebate offered by the fear-stricken workers.

The Master Builders stated yesterday that there was no need of further meetings of the organization on the subject, as they considered the incident closed.

A statement was made that almost every union man in the city had returned to work or had refused to leave work at the behest of the boss jawsmith. The contractors point to this condition of affairs as a testimonial to the complete impotency of the Carpenters' Union in the matter of disturbing the building industry of this city.

The Master Plumbers met with the striking union plumbers yesterday afternoon as they had promised to do, but no agreement was reached.

The employers came out with a firm statement that they would not grant the closed shop nor would they discuss that portion of the demands of the totemites. All of the employing plumbers were united upon this decision, and they would proceed to import craftsmen from the East.

WILL LOSE THEIR JOBS.

It is understood that tentative steps have already been taken to employ the necessary number of plumbers in other cities and have them sent to Los Angeles.

There are about two hundred plumbers out on strike, and they ask an advance in wages from $4.50 to $5.50 per day and a half holiday each week on pay. The employing plumbers at one time offered the strikers $5 per day, but the fellows insisted on the closed-shop clause being inserted in the agreement, and this was refused point blank.

There was no disturbance throughout the city yesterday by the handful of striking carpenters and plumbers, and the free workmen who remained at their posts were untroubled. In some instances there were rumors of disturbances, but upon investigation it was found that the wrangling was between union men and generally some jawsmith undertakers establishing a body, and accompanied the remains to the cemetery, where they were laid in the plot set aside for the Grand Army. At the grave were conducted the rites of the G.A.R.

RANK BUTTER UNDER FIRE.Strong Movement Started to Curb Adulterators.*Uncle Sam Takes Up Fight Against Importers.*Board of Trade Shies Castor Into the Ring.

There is a strong movement on foot to improve the quality of the buttered sold of the daily bread used in this city.

The people of Los Angeles eat 2500 tons of butter a day and pay $7500 for it. That's 3 cents worth for every pound of butter, including the cost of the butter and the cost of the butter.

The small ladies and gentlemen who take their butter from the bottle direct and do not care for the quality of the butter.

The United States government requires that standard butter contain at least 16 per cent. of butter fat, and the other 16 per cent. for water, salt, etc.—provided, the "etc." does not contain anything of a nature deleterious to the human system.

It has come to the ears of the Los Angeles Board of Trade that certain manufacturers of butter are selling butter within a radius of 500 miles of Los Angeles, are at present engaged in turning out a renovated butter and selling it in the local market as the real stuff.

New "pure butter" is a watchword in the heart of the Board of Trade. The board of trade is a body of men who make butter for a living, so it recently appointed a committee of three to investigate the quality of the butter.

The committee has taken United States Milk-Act. Oscar Lawler into confidence and the promise is that within a week or two there'll be a battle war on in the Federal Court. But the committee has the committee will be ready to go to the Board of Trade, and officers in turn expect to lay down the law to the government.

The committee says it has established, by chemical tests, that the adulterated butter, sold as the real stuff, contains only 44 per cent. of butter fat, the other 56 per cent. being water, cheap gelatin, brine, and salt and certain foreign by-products.

The charge is that the renovating process buys up odds and ends of butter at depreciated prices, adds the stuff down into a big pot, adds the water, adds the gelatin, adds the salt, adds the brine, adds the foreign by-products, and then the mixture is pressed into molds, and the result is a renovated butter.

The committee is a body of men who make butter for a living, so it recently appointed a committee of three to investigate the quality of the butter.

here a few years ago the fight was made bitter by the introduction of a dark horse from Riverside county at the last moment by the northern workers. Mrs. Cross is a woman of tact and amiability and succeeded in partially healing the breach during her term of office, and when the South put in nomination Mrs. Eliza Warburton of San Diego last year, she was elected without any show of opposition.

But the contest between the two sections is now on once more, since the adjournment of the national convention at Minneapolis a few weeks ago. At this convention, which met in conjunction with the G.A.R. encampment, Mrs. Carrie R. Sparklin of St. Louis was elected national president, and Mrs. Frisbee, who was placed in nomination by other than a California woman, went down in defeat. But plans for the next meeting are already smoldering, and through the murmur of discontent which has for many months clouded the atmosphere of quarreling Stanton Corps, the largest in Southern California, comes a rumor that Mrs. Hartwell will be as staunchly supported, where a certain number of her friends as formerly, but even Southern women do not deny that a house divided against itself cannot stand, and admit the strong chances for Mrs. Frisbee walking away with the plum. Mrs. Cross has been quietly hooped by a large number of friends, but it is understood that she does not desire the office, and will not be a candidate.

The delegates who attended the meeting at Minneapolis came home a few days ago and most of these went down immediately to Huntington Beach, where the Southern California corps and posts are in encampment and convention for ten days.

PIONEER IS LAID TO REST.
Charles Gollmer, the Los Angeles pioneer, whose body arrived Tuesday from Bettendorf, Iowa, where he died almost a month ago, was buried yesterday afternoon in the Gollmer plot at Rosehill Cemetery.

Gollmer's grave is beside that of his eldest son, and thus his dying wishes are fulfilled. The remains were taken from Riedeman & Meyer's undertaking parlors at 10 o'clock in the morning, and were placed in the casket by the Rev. Otto Wilke, head of the German Methodist Episcopal Conference.

Massive rites were held at the grave.

COLLISION COSTS MONEY.
An exhibition costing a tremendous amount to produce, nothing ever before given in Los Angeles in the way of an open-air show lasting but a day approaches the locomotive collision scheduled for 3 o'clock next Monday.

It is claimed that when the roar of steam and the crash of heavy steel frames announce the destruction of two powerful railroads engines, an event which cost its promoters $40,000 to arrange will be completed; this is more than the cost of some collisions not planned.

MORE CHAMBER MEMBERS.
The directorate of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday elected to membership: Prather & Fernandez, real estate; Holmes-Walton Co., real estate; J. R. Underwood & Co., real estate; Dr. E. A. Lundy, dentist; Simon Stoll, Henry Biscar, City Wire Works; Geo. D. Duke, lunch room; John Furrer, merchant tailor; F. W. Hopkins Co., printers and engravers; Hyatt & Graf, dentists; Los Angeles Pharmacy Co.; Dr. Q. J. Rowley; The Runyon Co., sign painting and advertising; W. H. Woodham, furniture; Wing Bros. Company, house painting; Western Hardware & Arms Company; J. F. Simmons, real estate.

IT PAYS
to buy Mennen's Borated Talcum because of its perfection and purity. But it does not pay to buy Mennen's Powder nearly as well, as it pays to sell an imperfect and impure substitute which, costing about half the cost of Mennen's, yields the dealer double profit.

THE LAXATIVE OF KNOWN QUALITY

There are two classes of remedies: those of known quality and which are permanently beneficial in effect, acting gently, in harmony with nature, when nature needs assistance; and another class, composed of preparations of unknown, uncertain and inferior character, acting temporarily, but injuriously, as a result of forcing the natural functions unnecessarily. One of the most exceptional of the remedies of known quality and excellence is the ever pleasant Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., which represents the active principles of plants, known to act most beneficially, in a pleasant syrup, in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to contribute their rich, yet delicate, fruity flavor. It is the remedy of all remedies to sweeten and refresh and cleanse the system gently and naturally, and to assist one in overcoming constipation and the many ills resulting therefrom. Its active principles and quality are known to physicians generally, and the remedy has therefore met with their approval, as well as with the favor of many millions of well informed persons who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual experience that it is a most excellent laxative remedy. We do not claim that it will cure all manner of ills, but recommend it for what it really represents, a laxative remedy of known quality and excellence, containing nothing of an objectionable or injurious character.

There are two classes of purchasers: those who are informed as to the quality of what they buy and the reasons for the excellence of articles of exceptional merit, and who do not lack courage to go elsewhere when a dealer offers an imitation of any well known article; but, unfortunately, there are some people who do not know, and who allow themselves to be imposed upon. They cannot expect its beneficial effects if they do not get the genuine remedy.

To the credit of the druggists of the United States be it said that nearly all of them value their reputation for professional integrity and the good will of their customers too highly to offer imitations of the manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., and in order to buy the genuine article and to get its beneficial effects, one has only to note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package. Price, 50c per bottle. One size only.

JEWS MAY OPEN SCHOOLS.

Plan to Give Land to Russian Peasants Completed.

Georgians' Fight for Church Autonomy Succeeds.

Black Sea Sailors and Soldiers Can't Be Trusted.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.) ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 5.—The Council of Ministers has sanctioned the plan permitting the Jews to open elementary and secondary schools under the same conditions as people of other creeds.

It is officially announced that the project to determine the method and terms of payment for crown lands distributed in connection with the government's agrarian programme is finished and will be published in a day or two.

A decree enlarging the penalty for spreading the revolutionary propaganda among the military has been made public. It decrees that sentences, which heretofore had been at the discretion of the courts, shall be no less than six years' imprisonment at hard labor.

The committee appointed to deal with the land question has drawn regulations for the employment of crown lands in the extension of peasant holdings. The lands concerned cover four million desiatines, yielding a total revenue of $2,500,000. The lands will be sold in small allotments on the basis of capitalization of the average annual income for the last three years, the price not to exceed twenty times the yearly rental.

The long struggle of the Georgian people to retain the autonomy of the Georgian Church, lost after the incorporation of the ancient kingdom with Russia, which has been carried on by interdict and boycott and all other means at the disposal of church and people, has resulted in a partial victory. The Emperor, on the recommendation of the Holy Synod, has declared the creation of a church council composed of three Georgian bishops, of which body a Russian archbishop will be the nominal head, and the restoration of the old Georgian language to its place in church literature. A commission has also been created to translate the Bible into modern Georgian. It is doubtful, however, if these partial concessions will be effective.

OFFICERS WILL RETALIATE.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.) SEVASTOPOL, Sept. 5.—In answer to the publication of a notice from the terrorists that a sentence of death had been imposed on Col. Dumbadze, commander of a rifle regiment here, the officers of that corps, in an open letter, have announced that in case of an attack being made on the colonel they will exact vengeance on the leaders of the progressive parties.

Admiral Skrydlov, commander of the Black Sea fleet, and the military commander here, are very apprehensive, both regarding the attitude of the sailors of the fleet and the garrison of the fortress. The cruise of the training squadron, as well as the regular fleet maneuvers, have been postponed. The ships will make only short trips to sea, scarcely venturing beyond the range of the guns of the fortress.

The military patrols in the city have been withdrawn inside the walls of the fort, the Governor announcing that the men are needed for their regular military training, but it is said that the step is due to the fear that the soldiers will be corrupted if they are allowed to be in contact with the masses.

The merchants of this city have practically been thrown on their own resources in the matter of protection from lawlessness. The Governor, at a recent meeting of merchants, advised them to organize their own guard for the protection of property, as soldiers could no longer be spared for police duty, and as the municipality is bankrupt and unable to maintain efficient protection.

MUTINEERS' TRIAL BEGINS.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.) KRONSTADT, Sept. 5.—The trial of 30 participants in the recent mutinous outbreak, including Onipko, one of the peasant leaders in the late Parliament, and fifty other civilians, today began here behind closed doors.

Dowager Empress Marie, accompanied by the Grand Duke Michael, brother of the Emperor, sailed yesterday on board the royal yacht Polar Star for Denmark. Emperor Nicholas and the Empress Alexandra accompanied the Polar Star for some distance on board the Empress's yacht, the Alexandra, returning later to Peterhof.

IMMIGRANTS TO LAND SOUTH.
Steamship Line to Establish Route Between Bremen and Charleston, S. C.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.) NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The North German Lloyd Steamship Company contemplates the operation of a direct line between Bremen and Charleston, S. C.

In a talk before he sailed for Europe three weeks ago, E. J. Watson, South Carolina immigration commissioner, said that the steamship companies were cooperating earnestly with the government authorities in an endeavor to solve the immigration problem, and that this was only the beginning of the movement to build up the agricultural sections of the United States with the overflow of European population and to relieve the congestion in the great cities.

Quintave Schwab of the North German line, last night, said that he had been aware of the conference, but had received no word of the determination to establish the new line.

WILL END.

The Times Scholarship Contest will end at midnight, September 26th. To be counted, subscriptions and coupons must bear postmark not later than that year and date.

Just three days more and The Times
Scholarship Contest of 1906 will close.
The last coupon was printed in yesterday's paper and such a cyclone of the little slips reached headquarters that it was impossible for the counters to get through with the tremendous stack in time to include an exact toll in this morning's score. They will be counted as rapidly as possible and accredited where they belong. In the meantime if friends of the contestants will continue to send in the coupons they have on hand it will facilitate the final count, and make it possible to publish the last score on the morning of the grand avalanche of coupons being delayed till the last day.

As in former years. Please forward favorites as rapidly as possible during these last three days.

The scholarship mail box was filled and refilled yesterday. Five times believed high with envelopes and packages of coupons, subscription receipts and personal letters of good will toward the corps of bright young people who have taken such a hold on the public. Not a single contestant but treasures a great stack of letters and coupons that have been received during the campaign from strangers who have taken this means of expressing sympathy. Copies of these would make interesting reading, but lack of space forbids so we can only give our readers an occasional peep into the contents of our mail bag.

WILL END.

The Times Scholarship Contest will end at midnight, September 28th. To be eligible, subscribers and coupon holders must have their names on the list by that date.

Just three days more and The Times Scholarship Contest of 1906 will close. The last coupon was printed in yesterday's paper and such a cyclone of the little slips reached headquarters that it was impossible for the counters to get through with the tremendous work in time to include an exact count in this morning's score. They will be counted as rapidly as possible and accredited where they belong. In the meantime if friends of the con-

Bassett. She lacks little more than 200 points this morning of catching that Pasadena miss. Judging from the coupons sent in yesterday, all the Smiths are alive to Bertha's interests. Almost 450 coupons were sent in for her from different sources. Besides subscriptions, Vivian Bassett received 800 coupons from her friends and almost 1000 points in subscriptions, and the neck-and-neck race between the two waxed more fast and furious.

BANNER BEARERS.

Zetta Crouse turned the largest score of the day—almost 11,000 points, which sends her up two rows and into the sixth place, just 200 points below Esther Zuber, the Los Angeles sprinter. The Covina girl in her flight passes both Pomona and Long Beach.

SURE!

"Will you kindly put the picture of Orestes Orfila in The Times again? I am much interested in him, and as he is a friend of mine, would like to have his picture."

A little girl stopping in Los Angeles writes: "I am from Phoenix, and I want Orestes Orfila to win a scholarship. I enclosed nine coupons for him."

CURE FOR THE BLUES.

Hundreds of coupons reach the office by every mail for Merie Prewitt. Yesterday morning Rev. Chas. Leach came to headquarters with a big bag of the little slips for Merie, and within was the following letter from Mrs. Leach: "Manager, Times Scholarship Contest: Please credit these enclosed coupons to Merie Prewitt, the brave little girl who must conquer life's forces with a single arm. May she secure that in the list which she most desires, and may all contestants courageously bear whatever defeat comes to them, in the wish of one who has made their acquaintance by way of The Times, and who will follow their educational career with great interest. Let me add that if there is any one in this city who has a fit of the 'blues,' or thinks life is only a bubble, let them become interested in some contestant and go to work for them, and the blues will vanish, and the bubble will be brim with the blessing that always comes from doing something for somebody else. Last year I laughed at a neighbor for her boundless zeal in behalf of a contestant whom she had never seen, but this year she can turn the smile on me."

MRS. CHARLES LEACH.

"113 S. Mathews st., City."

Howard Walton writes from Ontario: "Please credit Blake Tantau with enclosed coupons. I hope he wins a cash prize." C. C. Warren of Glendora also writes a pleasant note, enclosing sixty-five coupons for Blake.

FROM MOUNTAIN CAMP.

From away up in the mountains of Arizona comes a package of sixty-six coupons for Mary Lallanne, from a woman who writes: "I have taken great interest in watching the contest and from the very first I said you could. I do so hope that you get the score you are working for. It is certainly a great help now that you get them. In my time of school days I often had no such chances, and I often think of it now when I read of you little folks. I only wish I could help you more and all of them, but I had no chance at all to gather coupons for I am out in the mountains, where there is no one near me."

MRS. C. E. PATTERSON.

From Duarte comes a package of fifty-three coupons for Laura Lloyd, in answer to the appeal for her, sent by Mrs. E. E. Boden, who wishes all the workers some place in the winning list.

An old Mexican veteran 50 years of age came to the office yesterday and left a package of over seventy coupons for Myrtle McCarger, a Compton girl, who is trying for a musical scholarship.

SMITH ON DECK.

From Greenfield, Cal. Edith Parker writes to her namesake who she has never seen: "Enclosed, please find fifty coupons for Ignatius Parker. I have been watching his progress and although I have never seen him I feel interested and wish to see him get his scholarship and a cash prize. Hoping to see him number one, I am 'Yours respectfully'."

"EDITH PARKER."

Bessie McClain of Santa Ana writes: "I am a little Orange county girl. My name is Bessie and I am 18 years old. Send these coupons, which I have gathered with the good will of scores of American friends."

W. G. Wright of San Bernardino, author of "The Butterflies of the West Coast," has become interested in the success of Miss Myrtle McCarger and sends her the second batch of coupons, together with a nice letter in which he commends her pluck, common sense and "smile."

PRIZES AT STAKE.

The contestant having the highest score at the close of the contest will have first choice of scholarships and, in addition, the $500 prize. The second highest will have second choice of scholarships and the first cash prize of $200, the third will have third choice of scholarships and the cash prize of $125, and so on to the end of the list.

The list of scholarships follows: University of Southern California, Preparatory School, University of Southern California, College of Liberal Arts, University of Southern California, College of Oratory, Beulah Wright, Dean, St. Matthew's Military School, (Episcopal) Burlingame, Cal., Theop Polytechnic Institute, Occidental College, Los Angeles School of Art and Design, Art Students' League, (Blanchard Building), Long Beach Business College, Los Angeles Military Academy, Long Beach Conservatory of Music, Miss Pearl Trauger, voice teacher, Brownberger Home School (night school), Cummock School of Expression, Eva Keller Piano School, Blanchard Building, Los Angeles College of Fine Arts, Los Angeles Business College, St. Vincent's College, Huntington Hall, Southern California Business College, Verdi School of Singing, Los Angeles Conservatory of Music and Arts, The De Chauvenet Conservatory of Music, U.M.C. Church, Fillmore School of Music, Fillmore School of Music (vocal), The Boston School of Expression, 2638 East First street, California's Academy of Languages, Gallegos's Academy of Languages, (1210 South Hill), Robinson School of Expression, The Lyric School of Music, 731 S. Olive, Rosenblet's College of Garment Cutting and Laces Tailoring, Pacific Telegraph School.

CASH PRIZES ADDED.

In accordance with its usual custom during the previous five contests conducted by The Times, a cash prize will be offered in addition to the scholarship. The sum of $100 will be divided this year among contestants ranking highest. These cash prizes are designed to help defray the student's incidental or living expenses while attending school and will be divided according to the following scale:

1	$250
2	125
3	100
4	75

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

MRS. FRANK B. SILVERWOOD has just returned to Los Angeles, after spending a profitable winter in New York, where she has been studying vocal culture under Victor Harris, well-known composer and teacher. Mrs. Silverwood is the possessor of a rich and deep contralto voice, and her teacher, as well as the critics in the East, have praised her highly. She was heard a number of times in concerts at the Waldorf-Astoria.

As Mrs. Silverwood is a favorite here and has given of her talent to the programmes of the Friday Morning and Elbell clubs, they no doubt anticipate in her return the pleasure in store for them. Mrs. Silverwood only studies for her own pleasure, and to make the most of herself. In the New York studios, she was known as a "handsome California brunette" and as she has brought a number of handsome New York gowns home with her, she will doubtless keep up her reputation. Mr. and Mrs. Silverwood have taken apartments at Hotel Alexandria for the winter.

Posseys Return.

Mr. and Mrs. John Van Gelsen Posey of West Twenty-third street have recently returned from a five-week trip to Alaska, stopping at Seattle, Portland and also in San Francisco on their return trip.

From Santa Barbara.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carleton Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Morris and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Durr have just returned from a delightful two weeks' sojourn at Hotel Potter, Santa Barbara. Mr. and Mrs. Morris have just returned from their honeymoon and are at home at Hotel Leighton. Mrs. Morris was formerly Miss Louise Hughes, a popular Denver society girl of prominent family. Mr. Morris belongs to a well-known New York family and a little over a year ago came all the way from Boston for the occasion. Miss Woodbury, sister of the groom, rendered the wedding music. The bride is a native daughter and the groom has lived here much of his life, and is well known. Mr. and Mrs. Woodbury will leave this morning for an automobile tour to San Diego, and on their return will be at home at No. 234 Dorchester avenue, for the present.

"Faith" and "Hope" Guard Bride.

Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church was the scene of a particularly pretty wedding last evening. Miss Maude Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Smith of No. 1235 Arnold street, becoming the bride of Curtis S. Albro, with Rev. E. P. Ryland officiating. White and green was the color of the decorative scheme and asparagus ferns and lilies carried out the idea. A unique idea was the passing of the bride through flowered gates guarded by "Faith" and "Hope," represented by young girls dressed in white. They were Misses Laura Pirtle and Ruby Johnson. At the altar were three arches and from either side swung the letters "S" and "A," while in the center a floral monogram of the joined letters hung. Miss Jessie Lasepeich was maid of honor and wore a dainty gown of blue silk mull trimmed with lace, and carried an armful of maiden-hair ferns. Julius R. Smith was best man, and ushers included Messrs. J. L. Graham, L. C. Hamilton, George H. Reed and Herbert Eccleston. The bride was attired in a white crepe de chine over tulle and trimmed with Duchesse lace, caught with a princess sash. Her long tulle veil was fastened with a coronet of lilies of the valley and her bouquet was of bride roses. Lilies of the valley and carnations were the bridesmaids' flowers. The wedding music, rendered the popular marches and Oh, Promise Me during the service. After the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride, and here the decorations for the wedding-room and parlor were white and green, the couple standing beneath a canopy of wedding bells.

MR. AND MRS. CURTIS ALBRO, who were married last evening.

"Una Partita Lacrima" (Donizetti), W. Dellandrea; "A Minor Concerto, Opus 16" (Grieg), Mrs. Helen Roberts; number from "Mignon" (Thomas), Mrs. Lowe; "Nocturne, Opus 27" (Chopin), Mrs. Roberts; "French Serenade," Sig. Buzel. Mrs. E. R. McGlashan and Miss Clara Smith were accompanists for the evening.

Later dainty refreshments were served. Invited guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Ben White, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. T. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Domenico Russo, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Henriette Tucker, Mrs. Veno Clary, Mrs. E. E. Ellis, Mrs. J. B. Duke, Mrs. R. B. Baker, Mrs. Dolores Eberly, Mrs. D. Button, Mrs. G. Jones, Mrs. S. Weber, Mrs. Thompson and Misses Ida White, Josephine Clary, Chugh, Alice Starr, Clara Smith, Kate Hall, Katherine Thompson and Carl Brown, Perrelli Minetti, Giuseppe Fenna, Robert Jamieson, Dr. Sassaella, W. Dellandrea, Ricardo Ruiz and Charles Melmore.

Michigan Girl's Romance.

Though quiet in its details, the wedding of Miss Isabel G. Gay and George E. Cryer, which took place last evening, was fraught with romantic interest. Both the bride and groom are graduates of the University of Michigan, and attended the college at the here to go in business. He is prominent in club and social circles.

McFarlands in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. McFarland of No. 114 West Twenty-eighth street, who left a month ago for Europe, have been heard from, and report a pleasant trip across the water. They are in England enjoying the motoring there, as they took their large touring machine with them and intend doing Europe by motor.

Garretts to Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Garrett of No. 174 West Adams street, who, with their children, have been spending the summer at Playa del Rey, expect to return to their home at the end of the week. Miss Mary Phelps, sister of Mrs. Garrett, who has been her guest at the seaside, returned to her home on Inglewood street yesterday. Mrs. L. W. Phelps of Inglewood street has been enjoying a summer outing at Catalina Island.

Sepulvedas Honored.

Mrs. Sepulveda, wife of Mr. Sepulveda of Hognosillo, Mex., formerly of this city, and her charming young daughter, were guests of honor last evening at a beautifully appointed dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Romano of No. 2304 South Figueroa street. The large round table contained a pleasing centerpiece of fruit and the candelabra were shaded with amber grapes. Places were marked with silken flags, representative of United States and Mexico. Beside host and hostess and guests of honor, covers were laid for Gen. and Mrs. Adina R. Chaffee, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Jarvis Barlow, Miss Helen Chaffee, Miss Laura Solano, Lieut. Adina R. Chaffee, Frank Brown, Clark Summers and Chary Marble.

At Tahoe Tavern.

Among the guests at Tahoe Tavern on Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Climo, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Lockwood, Mrs. J. A. Glees, E. J. Yavner, Jr. and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Glassell, H. E. Montague and Frank M. Kelsey, all of Los Angeles.

Native Daughter Weds.

Last evening Miss Edna Eckstrom became the bride of Edward Woodbury at a pretty ceremony, which took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Eckstrom, of No. 2339 Dorchester avenue. Rev. Mr. Clifford officiated. The home was decorated attractively. In the parlor white carnations and ferns were banded to form an altar, and a wedding bell was overhead. Yellow and white flowers and ribbons combined in an attractive color scheme in the dining-room.

The bride was attired in a natty suit of pearl gray silk trimmed with lace and carried a prayer book, brought and ferns. In the library pink and green was used. After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home at No. 1223 West Fifth street.

Return from Iceland.

Mrs. Charles Wellington Rand and her daughter, Miss Lilian, and two sons, Eldridge Dexter and Charles Wellington, has returned from a most delightful sojourn there. Mrs. Rand, with her two sons, will leave for New York next Thursday. The young men will go to Montclair Military Academy. After seeing them safely installed there Mrs. Rand will return here again. She had contemplated a trip abroad, but owing to business was obliged to give it up this year.

Catalina Reunion.

Miss Sophie Loring of Sycamore avenue, Hollywood, was hostess Tuesday at an attractive luncheon and card party given in honor of La Malilla Island after a most delightful sojourn there. Mrs. Rand, with her two sons, will leave for New York next Thursday. The young men will go to Montclair Military Academy. After seeing them safely installed there Mrs. Rand will return here again. She had contemplated a trip abroad, but owing to business was obliged to give it up this year.

To New Mexico.

Mrs. Charles F. Lummis of Avenue Forty-two expects to leave with her small son, Keith Lummis, the last of the week for Bernillo, N. M., where she goes to visit Dr. and Mrs. Lund, and also friends in Albuquerque. She expects to be gone about six weeks.

Welcome and Farewell.

One of the delightful affairs of the week was an informal reception and musicale given by Pietro Buzel of No. 706 Westlake avenue in honor of the charming artists, Mrs. Helen Roberts of El Paso, who is visiting friends here, and Mrs. Edith Jamison Lowe, who expects to leave soon to study vocal music in New York. Mrs. Roberts is a pianist of note in El Paso, and her musical numbers were thoroughly artistic.

The programme was well chosen and much enjoyed by the guests. It included "Hail! Hail!" from Don Giovanni (Mozart), Miss Alice Starr.

MRS. FRANK B. SILVERWOOD, young Los Angeles matron, who has returned from New York, where she won musical triumphs.

same time, but while there never met. The groom is a Los Angeles man, while the bride is from Michigan. She, with her family, came here two years ago to make her home, and during that time met Mr. Cryer. They found many interests in common, and the friends were not surprised to learn of the betrothal.

The home was prettily decorated, the couple standing for the ceremony beneath a canopy of soft asparagus ferns and scarlet carnations. The hall was festooned with the bride and groom's names in the library Maman Cochet. The roses graced the room. The university colors of blue and gold were carried out in the decorative scheme for the dining-room. Across the white cloth, broad strips of blue satin were laid, partly covered by the handsome Battemberg lace over it. Yellow dahlias graced the center of the table, and a canopy of asparagus ferns and golden bows were overhead.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Will A. Logan, and the bride was attired in a becoming gown of white crepe de chine over tulle, fastened with a princess sash and trimmed with bands of lace and shirring. She carried a shower of lilies of the valley. Christopher served the dainty collation following. Mr. and Mrs. Cryer left for a few weeks' trip, and on their return they will make their home in this city, where Mr. Cryer is a lawyer.

Mrs. Goldsmith's Luncheon.

Mrs. Goldsmith's Luncheon (Lillian Burkhardt) of Buena Vista entertained on Tuesday with a pretty little luncheon for eight women friends. The dainty table was laid with exquisite drawn work cloth and napkins and bright-eyed maidens decked it.

Married at La Jolla.

The marriage of Miss Emma Finley and A. H. Schroder of Pomona took place at the home of Miss Mary Ely in South La Jolla Tuesday evening. Rev. J. L. Pearson officiated. The house was beautifully decorated. A fine lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Schroder will remain at the beach for awhile, then return to their home in Pomona.

Stocking-Anderson Nuptials.

Yesterday at noon a pretty little home wedding was that of Miss Elsie Stocking and John Anderson, the ceremony taking place at the home of the groom. No. 404 Euclid avenue. Rev. Fred Ross officiated, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Ross. The couple were exchanged beneath a canopy of snowy asters and ferns. Miss Marie A. Anderson and Henry A. Anderson, sister and brother of the groom, were the only attendants. The bride wore Persian lawn and lace and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The maid of honor wore pale blue lawn and satin ribbon and carried pink roses. Breakfast was served in the dining-room, which was decorated in red and

ANNUAL GREEN TAG SALE

IT IS really wonderful how the interest keeps up. The fact is that every day shows an increase in the volume of business done. Counting today, there are only three and a half days left. Now if you have been delaying, it is time to think seriously. Don't overlook the fact that every piece of furniture in the house is reduced from 20 to 50 per cent.

"Crex" Furniture Reduced

You can't get the genuine "Crex" Prairie Grass Furniture outside of this store and those affiliated with us. There are imitations, of course, but they fall woefully short in every particular. We have a good stock, particularly in rockers. Prices have been reduced from 25 to 33 1-3 per cent. on everything.

In this sale we have tolerated no subterfuges and have prohibited any inclination toward deception. You'll get a "square deal."

LATEST INV

"The St. James," first

THE growing popularity of apartment-houses is causing them to encroach on grounds heretofore considered exclusively reserved for high-class residences. The latest move in this line is in fashionable St. James. In the southern side of St. James, with a north frontage on the boulevard, and one lot east of Park street, there is to be built immediately one of the handsomest apartment-houses in the city. It will cost fully $400,000. This deal was closed by McDonald, a Stett Company of No. 300 Lankers building. The house will be built

UNION NEGLECTS DYING MEMBER.

STAY CARD FOUND ON VICTIM OF POVERTY AND PHTHISIS.

Robert of Totemite Organizations Fails to Give Aid to Adherent Who Falls Helpless on Street from Ravages of Privation and Weakness Through Ravages of Consumption.

His union card did Thomas Hughes little good. And yet when they looked at Hughes—dazed, panting, nearly from the sidewalk, where he had fallen, at Fifth and Main streets, the man had the bit of paper in his pocket. He had kept it as carefully as though it were a talisman. For did not that card tell that Thomas Hughes belonged to the International Typographical Union? They picked him up from the sidewalk last evening at Fifth and Main, and place to lay his head he found none.

"Tuberculosis," said the receiving hospital report. It meant little to those who scan these reports, for tuberculosis is a common tragedy. But Thomas Hughes, pressman, lived in Los Angeles five years, "off and on," on health was good and strong came suddenly he was an active union member, known as the International Typographical Union. He paid his dues, and he was in "good standing" in his first touch in a cold which he coughed for some time.

He was a sick man, hideously sick, for further into his system. Tuberculosis is always a grim adversary—grim when it acts this way.

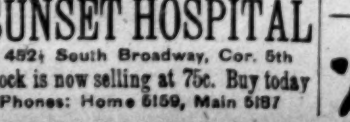

Thomas Hughes became irregular at work. In the end he stopped work altogether. He wasn't able to do the things he had done. He became something of a wanderer. And always he grew weaker.

His brother kept Thomas Hughes in a tent at Highland. A few months ago the brother made him a visit. Canada, he said, was a sick man. He was a wanderer. Those awful spasms, which he left the victim of bloodless, and close to longed death, became more frequent. He was a shadow of his former self.

The Wannsee was three and one-half minutes behind Vim, though the showing of the Germans was encouraging, as two of the Wannsee and Gluckauf, were always well up with the American yacht in the early part of the race when the wind was light. Wannsee weathered the American boats and for a few minutes was leading the fleet. Not lo-after the Gluekauf did the same, but before they got to the first turn the three Americans had gone to the fore. Caramba was in the lead for the first time round, but was beaten out on the second windward leg by the Vlm and after that the New York boat was never headed, winning by about half a minute. The Auk was scarcely twenty seconds behind the Caramba.

after that the New York boat was never headed, winning by about 100 yards.
